

COVID-19 FAQ

Are we going to have a next season?

Yes! Ballet Arizona is dedicated to bringing world class ballet to all of Arizona. Our 35th season has some great ballets and 2 premieres! For more info on this action packed season, please visit: <https://balletaz.org/2020-2021-season/>

Why should I purchase tickets for next year when we don't know what is going to look like after COVID 19?

Purchasing tickets or subscribing to Ballet Arizona supports our programs. Though we do understand that these are uncertain times but here at Ballet Arizona, we want you to buy with confidence.

We have waived all of our subscriber fees and have relaxed our policies to ensure that you get the best service possible.

The 2020-2021 season will go on! Securing your tickets now will give you the most amount of seating options for your favorite shows! For a list of our 2020-2021 productions, please visit: <https://balletaz.org/2020-2021-season/>

Are you doing virtual performances?

For more information on virtual performances, please visit our Virtual Events page. You can also sign up for our email list and follow us on social media for the latest news and updates.

Because the All Balanchine and the Desert Botanical Garden performances were cancelled, will those exact programs be offered next year?

We are happy to announce that we will be showcasing The Four Seasons, A World-Premiere at the Desert Botanical Garden running from May 18- June 5, 2021 (Tuesday- Saturdays at 8pm)

What are your box office hours?

Though the physical box office is still closed to the public due to COVID 19, we are happy to help you by phone at (602)-381-1096 or by emailing us at BoxOffice@BalletAZ.org Monday- Friday 9:00 AM- 5:30PM.
